| 8. Disco      | Discovery disputes in this case will be resolved by the assigned Magistrate Judge, who   |  |  |  |
| a.            | The first time there is a discovery dispute that counsel cannot resolve on their own, file a letter to Chambers via ECF and ask for an order of reference to the Magistrate Judge for discovery supervision. Thereafter, go directly to the Magistrate Judge for resolution of discovery disputes; do not contact Judge McMahon.   |  |  |  |
| b.            | Discovery disputes do not result in any extension of the discovery deadline or trial-ready date, and Judge McMahon must approve any extension of the discovery deadline in non- pro se cases.   |  |  |  |
| c.            | The Magistrate Judge cannot change discovery deadlines unless you agree to transfer the case to the Magistrate Judge for all purposes. Judge McMahon does not routinely grant extensions so counsel are warned that it they wait until the last minute to bring discovery disputes to the attention of the Magistrate Judge, they may find themselves precluded from taking discovery because they have run out of time. |  |  |  |
| -             | arties may at any time consent to have this case tried before the assigned Magistrate nt to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).  |  |  |  |

| a.            | Following submission of the joint pretrial order, counsel will be notified of the date of the final pretrial conference.   |  |  |  |
| b.            | In limine motions must be filed within five days of receiving notice of the final pretrial conference; responses to in limine motions are due five days after the motions are made. Cases may be called for trial at any time following the final pretrial conference.   |  |  |  |
| c.            | For bench trials, see Judge McMahon's special rules for bench trials in the Individual Rules.  |  |  |  |
| 11. No m      | otion for summary judgment may be served after the date the pretrial order is due.   |  |  |  |

The filing of a motion for summary judgment does not relieve the parties of the obligation to file the pretrial order and other pretrial submissions on the assigned date.
